

Fourth Annual Corporate Governance Symposium

“Key Tax & Accounting Issues In Troubled Economic Times”

4 CPE Hours
Only $49

Wednesday, October 28
George Mason University Fairfax Campus

In the wake of 2008 economic crisis and corporate excesses, the demand for transparency in financial reporting and careful documentation in auditing has grown exponentially. In the current climate, a higher degree of regulation and transparency is anticipated. This half-day symposium provides a forum for accountants, auditors, audit committee members, corporate attorneys, CFOs, and members of academia to exchange views and hear first hand from expert speakers about new trends in the accounting industry.

Symposium Topics Include:

- What is new at the SEC?
(Julie Erhardt, SEC)
- Responding to Auditing Challenges
(Keith Wilson, PCAOB)
- The Impact of the 2009 Tax Proposals
(Linda Cross, KPMG)
- Managing Tax Risk
(Dick Larson, George Mason)
- Topics in Internal Auditing
(Scott Carruthers, RSC)
- 10 Keys for Acquisition Due Diligence
(Joe Michalczyk, PWC)

Registration Fee: $49 per person.

Fee covers breakfast, courses, materials, and refreshments.

For questions regarding registration, please contact the School of Management at 703-993-1852.

Participants qualify to receive up to 4 hours of CPE credits for only $49

Symposium Jointly Sponsored by the School of Management, the Accounting Advisory Council and Northern Chapter of Virginia Society of CPAs.
