

School of Management

YOUR SUCCESS IS OUR BUSINESS

EARN UP TO 6 CPE CREDITS

Fourth Annual Corporate Governance & Ethics Symposium

Thursday, November 6

George Mason University Fairfax Campus

This one-day symposium provides a forum for accountants, auditors, audit committee members, corporate attorneys, CFOs, and members of academia to hear first-hand from expert speakers about new trends in current accounting and auditing practice.

Symposium Topics Include:

- Accounting Standards Board Interpretation No. 48 (FIN 48)
- International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS)
- Business Combinations
- Outsourcing v. Resourcing in Accounting Industry
- Virginia Ethics CPE training

Ethics 2008

Your CPA License Depends On It!

Satisfy your annual, two-hour Virginia Board of Accountancy (BOA) ethics requirement. Virginia CPAs are required to take two hours of ethics CPE every calendar year. By attending the George Mason University Symposium on November 6, participants can meet their annual ethics CPE ($65 fee included in the Symposium registration fee).

Symposium Jointly Sponsored by the School of Management, the Accounting Advisory Council and Cherry, Bekaert & Holland, L.L.P.

Symposium Program

9:05 - 9:55 a.m.	FIN 48 – Lessons Learned and Perspectives Linda W. Cross, area partner in charge, Mid-Atlantic Exempt Organizations, Tax Practice, KPMG
10 - 10:50 a.m.	International Financial Accounting Standards: The Road Ahead Meg Taylor, partner and Rasmus Miller, manager Goodman & Company, LLP
11:05 - 11:55 a.m.	Business Combinations – Perspective James C. Palumbo, partner Transaction Services, PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP
Noon - 1:30 p.m.	Lunch Presentation: Outsourcing v. Resourcing in Accounting Industry William Schieffer, CPA, senior vice president and regional market leader, Siegfried Group, LLP
1:45 - 3:45 p.m.	Virginia CPE on Ethics Rebecca E. McCoy, chair-elect, Board of Directors for the Virginia Society of CPAs

Registration Fee: $185 per person. Fee covers courses, materials, lunch, and refreshments. For questions regarding registration, please contact the School of Management at 703-993-1852.

For additional Symposium information, visit event website or contact Professor Massood Yahya-Zadeh at 703-993-2141 or mzadeh@gmu.edu.

For more information or to register visit the Symposium Website:

<http://somweb.gmu.edu/cges>